

Department of the History of English and Translation Studies invites students and staff to a guest lecture by

Marcin Turski, PhD

(Department of Translation Studies, WA UAM, Poznań)

an active interpreter and translator with ample professional experience of over 1,200 hours in the booth and 5,000 hours of consecutive and liaison interpreting, who has worked in 17 countries on 3 continents with such VIPs as Sting, William Wharton, Timothy Radcliffe, former US Vice President Allan Gore, President of Poland Bronisław Komorowski, and many more, who will deliver a talk entitled:

Interpreting for VIPs: Between a Balancing Act and Lion Taming

Saturday, January 17th, at 12:30, room CN-107

Don't miss it!