The City of Lublin

Lublin has always been one of Poland's most important cities. Due to its geographical location and history, Lublin has often played the role of a bridge between East and West. Interestingly, it also often took the lead at crucial historical moments when Poland's fate hung in balance. In 1569 the so-called Lublin Union was signed here, uniting Crown of the Kingdom of Poland and Grand Duchy of Lithuania into a single political entity, thus creating the largest European state of the time. In the final days of World War I, Poland's first independent government (which soon ceded power to Józef Piłsudski) was founded in Lublin. It was here again that the provisional communist government was installed by the Soviets in July 1944, during the last stages of World War II. Lublin is also considered by some to be the cradle of Solidarity; the avalanche of strikes that in 1980 spread throughout Poland and eventually led to the Gdańsk agreements began in Lublin.

Since World War II, Lublin has expanded threefold and today is the largest and most important industrial, commercial and educational centre in eastern Poland. It is no exaggeration to call Lublin a city of universities. At present, Lublin has 5 universities and a few colleges with the total of over 65,000 students, while the population of Lublin is approximately 350,000. If one adds the rich and thriving cultural life that imparts a unique artistic flavour to the atmosphere of Lublin, our city appears to be an ideal place in which to spend a part of your colourful student life.

Different guides, publications about Lublin (scroll down to find English versions) : <http://lublin.eu/turystyka/foldery-trystyczne/>

❖ The Old Town

One of the most beautiful in Poland. Its uniqueness lies in its preservation of the original medieval town plan within the confines of its defensive walls. All the old townhouses are distinguished by rich artwork that still preserves their Gothic and Renaissance character. Apart from great sightseeing value, tourists are attracted by the abundance of stylish cafes, pubs and restaurants.

❖ Krakowska Gate

One of the most well-known landmarks of Lublin – it can be found in hundreds of photographs and drawings. Built in the first half of the 14th century in the Gothic style, it was rebuilt in the 16th century in Renaissance style with a baroque copula. Today, the Gate houses the Historical Museum of Lublin.

❖ Lublin Castle

One of the grandest sights in Lublin. The oldest parts of the castle date back to the middle of the 13th century. The castle served as a prison until 1954; during the Nazi occupation there were over 80,000 people interned there. Today, the castle houses the extensive Lublin Museum, with over 100,000 artefacts in various permanent exhibitions. However, the most outstanding architectural monument of the Castle complex is

❖ The Holy Trinity Chapel

A unique building in Poland and an exceptionally rare monument in Europe, famous for its unique Russo-Byzantine frescoes from the early 15th century combined with the Gothic style of the Chapel. It is the only example in Poland of this kind of art that has been preserved almost untouched.

❖ The Archcathedral Church in Lublin

The former Jesuit church dating from the end of the 16th century; it is particularly interesting because of its acoustic vestry as well as grand and stylish interior with baroque wall paintings.

❖ State Museum at Majdanek

A preserved section of the infamous concentration camp organized by the Nazis in 1941-42. Majdanek was the second largest death camp (after Oświęcim-Brzezinka) in the countries of occupied Europe. It operated till liberation in July 1944, and during that period about 360,000 people, representing 51 nationalities from 26 countries, were exterminated. The permanent camp exposition consists of the post-camp objects: the prison fields surrounded with the barbed wire, the guard towers, prisoners' barracks, the gas chambers and the crematorium with the tomb of those murdered in the camp. You can also see documentaries shown in a small cinema.

❖ Going outside Lublin

The city is also an excellent base if you want to travel further and visit other beautiful spots in the Lublin region. The wide choice ranges from Kazimierz Dolny - an architectural and cultural pearl of the region; Kozłówka with the beautiful Zamoyski Museum located in the palace, housing, among others, a unique gallery featuring socialist-realist "art"; Nałęczów - a well-known, beautifully situated spa; to Zamość, whose Old Town is included on the UNESCO World Heritage list.
