

WYDZIAŁ PRAWA,
PRAWA KANONICZNEGO
I ADMINISTRACJI | KUL

Zaproszenie

na wykład

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW IN STATE-UNION SYSTEMS – INSIGHTS FROM THE UNITED STATES AND THE EU

godz. 13.20-15.00

Wykład poprowadzi

John Duff, JD, LLM, Associate Professor,
School for the Environment – UMass Boston

5 czerwca 2018

Lublin, Collegium Iuridicum

Ul. Spokojna 1, CI-100

John Duff received his J.D. from Suffolk University Law School in Boston and his LL.M. from the Law and Marine Affairs Program at the University of Washington. He also holds degrees in Business (University of Lowell) and Journalism (University of Mississippi). Over the course of the last thirty years he has worked as a newspaper reporter; an attorney in private practice; served as general counsel to a nonprofit organization focusing on marine habitat protection issues; and, has directed the marine law research programs in Mississippi and Maine. He is a co-author of International Ocean Law, Carolina Academic Press, 2005. Since 2004, he has engaged in teaching and research on issues of law, the environment and communication at UMass Boston.