

ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE OF THE MINOR SEMINARY

Summary

The valid Code of Canon Law lays down that minor seminars should be preserved and promoted, or where appropriate, the new ones should be created. This article presents an overall organisational structure of the minor seminary. First, the synthetic history of minor seminars is presented. Next, the persons responsible for didactic and educational dimension of the seminar are described. The final part depicts an organisation of "special religious formation" in the minor seminary.

Key words: minor seminary, students, bishop, rector, spiritual director, parents, vocation