

The Centro Superior de Hotelería y Turismo de Valencia (School of Hotel Services and Tourism of Valencia) in Spain is very glad to inform you about the offer that we have for students coming in the Leonardo, Comenius and Erasmus exchange projects.

We have many years working as a receiving institution with students from many different countries, like Germany, Sweden, France, Italy, Hungary, Belgium, Turkey, Finland, Bulgaria, Estonia, we take part of the Leonardo Network, providing placements for students in Hotels and Restaurants of the Valencian Community, Our school is part of the Association of businessmen of the tourism enterprises in the Community of Valencia.

At the same time our visitor's students can enjoy the secrets of the famous Mediterranean Cuisine with our famous Paella Valenciana and the kind technics in the Spanish Service, the students can improve their skills with a quality practices and language skills, we provide Spanish Classes in our institution, other important point is that we are an international school we receive students from more than 42 nationalities, being most of them from Latin America, Europe, Turkey, and Asia. Last year we got more than 2000 students between our Travel Agency, Hotel School and our Restaurant School.

Students can have a cultural knowledge and some touristic experiences visiting the new city of the science and the arts in the modern area of Valencia, where the contrast with our historical center, will surprise the visitor students.

As every year we offer student practical placements in Top Hotels, Travel Agency and Restaurants of the city, and the possibility to perform practices in our companies, hotels and Restaurants Schools where the students will have contact directly with the clients and the different products that we offer to them.

As we have many schools willing to come to Valencia this year we need to do a planning of the accommodation that we offer in our apartments around Valencia, so we need to get a confirmation as soon as you can confirm, in order to make a reservation for your group, so please send this information when you get details from your national agency or institution.

The School of Hotel Services and Tourism of Valencia is an official Centre recognized by the Consellery of Culture and Education of the Generalitat Valenciana, with number 46031794. In our web page you could find more information about our institution, if you need a Letter of Intent or any other information please contact.

We will be very glad to meet you in Valencia!

Send you my kind regards,
