

Selected courses in English in the academic year 2010/2011

KUL institute/department:	Institute of History Department of Arts of the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin
Course title:	History of Russian Political Culture. Early Modern Period
Lecturer (name, surname):	Łaszkiewicz Hubert
Title/position:	dr hab. Assistant professor
ECTS credits:
Course duration (1st , 2nd or both semesters):	1 st semester
Number of hours per week:	1 h.
Course type:	lecture
Level:	I, II, III
Course description:	Russian political culture is known mostly through the Russian political practice than theoretical treatises. The aim of the lecture is to provide some basic knowledge on the main features (categories) of Russian (Muscovite) political culture as seen through the practice and some scarce more discursive sources.
Required reading list:	Cherniavsky Michael, Tsar and People. Studies in Russian Myths , New Haven and London, Yale University Press, 1961. Keenan Edward L., Muscovite Political Folkways , "Russian Review", vol. 45 (1986) nr 2, s. 115-181. Zientara Benedykt, Dawna Rosja. Despotyzm i demokracja , Warszawa, Wydawnictwo TRIO, 1995. Кром Михаил Маркович, Меж Русью и Литвой. Западнорусские земли в системе русско-литовских отношений конца XV - первой трети XVI в. , Москва, Археографический Центр, 1995.
Prerequisites:	none
Assessment method:	oral exam
Contact person for further information (name, surname, e-mail, phone):	Hubert Łaszkiewicz e-mail: hubla@kul.lublin.pl