Selected courses in English in the academic year 2010/2011

KUL institute/department:	Institute of Psychology
Course title:	Selected Topics in Clinical Psychology
Lecturer (name, surname):	Konrad Janowski
Title/position:	PhD
ECTS credits:	3
Course duration (1st , 2nd or both semesters):	1st semester
Number of hours per week:	2
Course type:	Lecture
Level:	Intermediate
Course description:	The course will cover selected issues of depression and anxiety disorders. Students participating in the course are expected to familiarize with assigned reading materials and actively participate in the class. Issues covered over the course: 1. Depression – diagnostic criteria – diagnostic interview – psychometric assessment – differential diagnosis – etiology – treatment choices and indications – psychotherapeutic approaches 2. Anxiety disorders - diagnostic criteria - diagnostic interview - psychometric assessment - differential diagnosis - etiology - treatment choices and indications - psychotherapeutic approaches
Required reading list:	Michael T. Nietzel, Douglas A. Bernstein, Geoffrey P. Kramer , Richard Milich. (2002). Introduction to Clinical Psychology (6th Edition).
Prerequisites:	None
Assessment method:	Final exam
Contact person for further	Dr Konrad Janowski, e-mail: janowski@kul.lublin.pl information (name, surname, e-mail, phone):	