

invites MA students and staff to a guest lecture by

Professor Izabela Szymańska

(Institute of English Studies, Warsaw University)

who will discuss the challenges and problems inherent in translating children's literature with special reference to Polish translations of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland in a talk entitled:

Translators' Adventures in Aliceland.

Translation Series and Translation Norms in Children's Literature

Saturday, April 2nd, at 12:30, room CN-208