

The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland
Department of Celtic Studies

FIRST CALL FOR PAPERS

The Department of Celtic Studies at the Institute of English, The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, invites submissions for the

3rd Lublin Celtic Colloquium
Changing Perspectives in Celtic Studies
September 19–20, 2019
Lublin, Poland

Confirmed Plenary Speakers: Dr. Andrew Breeze, University of Navarra
Dr. Aidan Doyle, University College, Cork

Papers are invited in any of the following or related areas:

1. Celtic literature
2. Literary perceptions of Celtic traditions
3. The history and culture of the Celtic peoples
4. Formal analyses of the Celtic languages from a synchronic and diachronic perspective
5. The future of the Celtic languages (sociolinguistics, contact linguistics, language planning, issues of translation)
6. Any other topic that can be considered relevant.

Please send an abstract of your paper proposal (200-300 words, including references) to mark.ofionnain@kul.pl by 31st March 2019. The conference language is English. Your name and affiliation should be given in the e-mail message. Notification of acceptance will be given by 30th April 2019.

The conference fee is 350 PLN, and includes materials, coffee breaks and conference dinner. A selection of papers will be published in a post-conference volume.

Details concerning payment and accommodation options will be announced in the second circular.

Organising Committee:

Dr hab. Maria Bloch-Trojnar

Dr Robert Looby

Dr Mark Ó Fionnáin

Dr Aleksander Bednarski