

Do you want to enjoy your time at KUL again? If so, this offer is for you!

2-week intensive course of Polish Language and Culture in Lublin, Poland at the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin for two ex-Erasmus+ students!

The offer is for two students and includes free participation in the course, board and accommodation. The participant covers only travel and insurance costs.

Dates: 23 July – 04 August 2018

This Intensive Course (9:00 to 13:30 and 17:00 to 18:30, 33 hours per week) is designed for students who studied at our university within Erasmus+ programme in previous years and aim at rapid linguistic progress. In addition to the morning classes, there are afternoon sessions, devoted to oral practice and extended development of vocabulary and pronunciation. Each day consists of a number of Polish language classes and a one-hour lecture (delivered both in Polish and English) on Polish culture, history, or contemporary issues. Language classes are held in groups of no more than ten students to facilitate individual attention and active participation.

Additionally, all courses offer a variety of cultural and social activities such as sightseeing in Lublin, and day trips to picturesque places in the Lublin region or to interesting places along Poland's eastern frontier. Students are given a unique opportunity to meet with celebrities of Polish cultural and political life and see some of the masterpieces of Polish art and architecture. These trips and events are included in the course fee.
