

LEONARDO / ERASMUS PROGRAM

Student Experience internship in Palma de Mallorca

For Graphic Design and/or Photography and Editing Assistant

The ABA ART LAB Internship program is a unique opportunity for European undergraduate and postgraduate students to live and work in Palma de Mallorca, and experience life in the world's most authentic Mediterranean Island. Applicants must demonstrate their interest, skills and expertise to undertake this internship and be available for at least 6 to 9 months.

ABA ART LAB internships aim to strengthen relations between Mallorca and the world, engaging young students as future art curators and citizens. The ABA ART LAB Internship Program presents a personal and professional development opportunity for students, a chance not only to develop your design and language skills but also to become acquainted with the exciting movement of the art world.

SUBMISSION
2015 & 2016

Host Profile

ABA ART LAB was founded in September 2004 by the Bordoy twin sisters. It started as a local Palma de Mallorca emergent contemporary art gallery and it evolved into a global site-specific art production company. All this was achieved without giving up it's own exhibition spaces, now called ABA ART LAB project rooms.

Internship Profile

The design and photography intern will be responsible for appropriately styling the gallery's artworks for photography, creating and developing photography concepts, shooting and editing. Along with the photographic responsibilities the candidate will be in charge of ABA ART LAB's graphic design; developing the current content/layout of corporate website and the production of an art catalogue. As well as sustaining ABA ART LAB's presence with content across all social media platforms, he/she will also be involved with the technical and graphical aspects of maintaining the brand identities consistency (especially across the web site, social media and art catalogue edition).

Key Responsibilities

The responsibilities would mainly involve:

- Shooting contemporary artworks and editions
- Production of art catalogue editions
- Contributions to the branding and visual development of the new website based upon it's target audience by providing dynamic solutions for layout, colors' and styles
- Identifying and preparing the graphic content for the corporate website and the gallery environment itself
