

Selected courses in English in the academic year 2010/11

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| KUL institute/department: | Law Institute/Department of American and Comparative Law |
| Course title: | International Human Rights in Practice |
| Lecturer (name, surname): | Delaine R. Swenson |
| Title/position: | Professor, KUL |
| ECTS credits: | 5 |
| Course duration (1 st , 2 nd or both semesters): | 2 nd Semester |
| Number of hours per week: | 2 |
| Course type: | Elective |
| Level: | |
| Course description: | This course looks at contemporary human rights issues using a number of different formats designed to encourage discussion and debate on the issues involved. Class formats include the use of case studies, Oxford Style Debates or propositions for and against and an examination of contemporary human rights problem from both a domestic and international legal perspective. |
| Required reading list: | Materials distributed as part of the class. |
| Prerequisites: | None |
| Assessment method: | Class Participation including participation as a primary speaker in at least one exercise |
| Contact person for further information (name, surname, e-mail, phone): | Professor Delaine R. Swenson Dswenson@kul.lublin.pl 445-3721 |