Abstract In his apostolic and missionary work St Paul, the witness of the Resurrected Christ, appeared as a perfect and refined teacher in faith. He not only taught Christian science, but first of all he awoke faith in people, as an interpersonal intimacy and communion with Christ. This is why in his teaching the central place is occupied by the crucified Messiah and Resurrected Lord – Jesus Christ, whom God the Father exalted and gave to mankind and to the world as the Savior. In St Paul faith is the whole human person's act and has the structure of an interpersonal meeting of a man with God in the Person of Jesus Christ.
