

Authors: Andrzej Kiciński

Title: Kinga Pawlus. Dance for God. Published by: gloria24.pl., Kraków 2014 p. 325.

Source: Biuletyn Edukacji Medialnej

Year: 2014, number: 2(2014), pages: 157-161

Keywords: education through dance, dance theology, communication through dance

Discipline: MEDIA & COMMUNICATION

Language: ENGLISH

Document type: REVIEW

Publication order reference (First author's office address): dr hab. Andrzej Kiciński, prof. KUL, Katolicki Uniwersytet Lubelski Jana Pawła II, Wydział Teologii, Al. Raławickie 14, 20-950 Lublin, Poland

Abstract

The publication entitled "Dance for God" is certainly worth it to be known from the perspective of education. Reader will find in this book a lot of inspiring thoughts of biblical and theological themes that analyze the phenomenon of dance, which is inextricably linked with human life. Anyone can know valuable achievements of prominent people the Church on the dance and can turn it into an inspiring way of thinking to make use of this proposal as non-verbal communication with God. Today, as we are constantly looking for adequate language of the faith – the emotional and experiential language certainly should be rediscovered. The point is that faith is not only associated with the doctrine, but a personal relationship with God.